First openings at Dayton Arcade

After years of anticipation, parts of the revitalized Dayton Arcade will start to open this year. Demolition and renovation work has been under way all year as part of the highly anticipated project this year at the Fire Blocks, according to the developer of the downtown Dayton district.

A representative with Windsor Companies, which has been rehabbing the historic buildings along East Third, St. Clair and Jefferson, said this year residents will starting moving into their modern American dinner, a new urban furnishings store and a new craft beer bar, as well as some large new office tenants.

Racino adding hotel, parking garage

An 11-story hotel with a 112-by-9-foot, 6-inch LED sign will be under construction a game-changer, it does not happen every day. When we were approached by Mr. Dillin and his investors, we were overwhelmed with excitement regarding the possibilities for Centerville Place," Centerville City Manager Wayne Davis said.

A tenant is already committed to a 60,000-square-

The expansion will mean 70 new jobs at the Eaton manufacturer, which makes frying equipment for customers like McDonald's, Burger King, Wendy's, KFC and Chick-fil-A.

Julie Sullivan of the Dayton Development Coalition said agriculture is still a major part of Preble County's econ-venture by Health and the University of Dayton, who together own the 37-acre site.
